

Professor Prof Jason Matangi, Waikato Management School , New Zealand has agreed to be part of our International Visiting Faculty Panel Online. Photo attached.

Profile- Prof Jason Matangi – Director, Global Engagement and Development

Prof Jason Matangi is the Director of Global Engagement and Development at Waikato Management School (WMS). His role has key responsibility for the operationalisation of the University's International Plan. Jason has 20 years' experience in the international education industry, holding management positions in both the New Zealand and Australian tertiary education sectors. His roles have included strategic and business planning, change management and the setting and achievement of international objectives and targets.